

Re-evaluating Space
Across Disciplines

FARU 2019
INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH CONFERENCE

CALL FOR PAPERS

CALL FOR PAPERS

Research Paper Presentation

Introduction - Research Paper Presentations

15 minutes per presentation with 5 minutes of questions

Formal presentation made by one or more speakers meant to share research results or completed work, innovative evaluation concepts, methodologies, or tools. Each presentation should be no longer than 15 minutes, with an additional 5 minutes for questions. This will be conducted in multiple tracks. The final list of selected papers will be ranked through a blind review process and will be eligible for FARU Awards. The accepted papers will also be made available online after the conference along with the ISBN number. The research paper submissions are open to researchers, academics, practitioners and under-graduates.

Submission of Abstracts

Abstracts of 250-300 words are invited to be submitted for blind review. Do not include the author details with the abstract but fill in the abstract submission form (For the link please refer the website, 'Call for Papers' page <Submission of Abstracts <Important links < DOWNLOAD - Abstract submission form). Once the abstract is submitted via e mail to faru@uom.lk, an "Identification Number starting with PA_" will be allocated for each submission. Selected authors will be invited to submit and/or present after further review.

All abstracts should be submitted via email to faru@uom.lk as a PDF version and as a Word document together with the abstract submission form.

Abstract Guidelines

The abstract submission should include the following:

1. Title of the paper
2. Keywords
3. Abstract of the paper
4. Category of Theme

Full Paper submissions

Guidelines for the preparation of full papers are given in file below. All full papers will be reviewed (double-blind) by the Scientific Committee, who will assess the paper on originality and academic rigor. Final papers will be double-blind reviewed by two members in the Scientific Committee. Full papers for blind review should be submitted in PDF format.

All accepted full papers will be published in the FARU 2019 conference proceedings provided that it was presented during the conference. The Proceedings will be published online with a DOI assigned to each paper.

Full papers can be uploaded via submissions tab of the FARU 2019 Conference management system. In addition, please forward a PDF version to this email address faru@uom.lk The full paper should be a maximum of 12 pages in length. Please use the FARU 2016 Template to prepare your manuscript. Do not include the author details with the full paper submission for review but attach the abstract submission form with the ID number starting with PA_. Click the link below for more details.

DOWNLOAD - Guidelines for the preparation of Final Paper

For the link please refer the website, 'Call for Papers' page < Submission of Abstracts <Important links

Final print ready papers should be submitted in word format together with the "Registration Form" to faru@uom.lk.

DOWNLOAD – Conference Registration Form

For the link please refer the website, 'Call for Papers' page < Submission of Abstracts <Important links

FARU Awards 2019

All selected papers will be eligible for the following awards:

- Best paper award (6 awards under each sub-theme)
 - a) Best paper award under the theme – Re-evaluating Space across disciplines
 - b) Best paper award under the theme - Usage of space and human interaction
 - c) Best paper award under the theme - Professional space and economic impact
 - d) Best paper award under the theme - Experiencing space and perception
 - e) Best paper award under the theme - Spaces in history and new learnings
 - f) Best paper award under the theme - Physical and virtual space as concepts
- Overall Best paper Award (1 award)
- Outstanding contributor of FARU 2019 award

For more information and marking criteria, please refer the website, 'Call for Papers' page <Submission of Abstracts <FARU Awards>

Deadlines and Important dates

Please refer the website, 'Call for Papers' link <Deadlines and important dates